Radical Transformation Mentor

Would you like to have a more authentic and joyful relationship with your partner, family, friends and colleagues?

Is there an addiction, habit, or dependency like alcohol, gambling, shopping, or screens that you are looking to overcome?

Do you want to remove blockages of past experiences like anger, sadness and regret, or unhelpful characteristics like diffidence, unworthiness, and distractedness?

Are you feeling frustrated and overwhelmed with your work, or maybe you are feeling stuck and lack that much needed clarity?

Would you benefit from having a clear road map that radically improves your probability of achieving all that you truly want, using the path of least resistance?

I'm looking to work with people that are ready to radically up-level their Five Freedoms of Life:

Finance/ Purpose

Utilizing the power of your intelligence and intuition, to clearly experience your goal, eliminate any inner conflicts and follow the aligned action.

Family/ Relationships

Powerful processes that clear any negative effects from the past relationships like guilt, resentment, and distrust, and master the manifestation of your masculine and feminine energy to heighten passion and intimacy.

Fitness/ Health

Alleviating physical and mental discomfort with health hacks and personality upgrade practices that transmute self-care from a hassle to a joyful effort.

Fun/ Pleasure

Shifting from a largely bland and colorless existence to experiences that remind us that life is abundant with pleasures, and you are here to thrive.

Faith/ Connection

Guided practices that will bring you experientially in alignment with the true essence of who you really are.

Right now, you are inhabiting two realities. First, your objective reality is all the things around you and happening to you, outside in. The second is the subjective reality of your thoughts, images, emotions, and body sensations.

Contact is your ability to master your subjective reality with the power of your attention and intention. This effect of this is how you show up in your objective reality. This has everything to do with manifesting the life that you truly want.

Working with Bhaskar is an absolute delight and gift. He has a natural way to guide with so much kindness and genius. Through his coaching sessions, Bhaskar creates a powerful connection where we feel increasingly aligned with our essence and our path. Every session brings grace, emotional release and inner peace. I have worked with many exceptional coaches. Bhaskar is at the top of this list. Thank you, Bhaskar for sharing your light.

Bhaskar is one of the best coaches I have had the good fortune to meet. As a coach myself, my bar is high. What I liked was the power of his questions and his way of listening, summarizing, and capturing what was most important. The outcome is what matters. I was feeling stuck, not motivated to move forward on projects. Bhaskar used an efficient process to get to some suppressed emotions and false beliefs. I was worried it would be long and painful but thanks to Bhaskar's skillful ways and incredible wisdom it was rather quick and painless. Today, I am back to putting one action in place at a time with faith that I am on the right path. I know my priorities and how to stay focused.

From the start, I felt very open to share things with Bhaskar in our 1-on-1 sessions. This allowed me to go deeper in our sessions together and make progress on the things that kept me stuck in the past. Bhaskar is gifted in his ability to intuitively interpret what I needed to work on most. His strength is identifying limiting beliefs and patterns and diffusing the charge around them. The result is that I would have less resistance the next time I needed to take action on a specific goal that I was trying to accomplish.

Having been a former NHLer and Olympian who experienced performance anxiety as a player, I know the importance of having a peak state. When I felt I needed support around my emotional state, I would contact Bhaskar. It's amazing how after an hour of him taking me through specific exercises, I felt an emotional release, I felt lighter and more at ease.

I have been around high-quality people all my life, so I recognize someone who mastered his craft. I can definitely say that about Bhaskar. In addition, he is very much in touch with his softer side as a man which allows him to have a nice blend of keeping me accountable and being empathetic when there is a need for it. I would recommend working with Bhaskar, especially if you have limiting beliefs and patterns that keep you stuck in old stories. Working with Bhaskar, I have elevated my ability to live more skillfully and expect much more from myself just because I feel more confident about who I am.

A journey with Bhaskar is one of deep transformation. I have known Bhaskar for nearly 10 years now under different capacities, and although I was fully aware of his knowledge and wisdom on spirituality, and his magnificent ability to align body, mind and spirit to a higher state, it is only in these coaching sessions, that I discovered Bhaskar's true talent at piercing through one's being and unearthing all the blockages one places on the psyche. Bhaskar's methods are fast and effective, and the results immediately ripple into every aspect of one's life.

I highly recommend Bhaskar to anyone who is looking to upgrade themselves, and especially to professionals looking to bring a higher state of consciousness to their practice. Thank you, Bhaskar, for sharing your gift.

Bhaskar is a world-class mentor. Attentive, generous, tactful — he lends an enlightening hand, truly. Saying that my conversations with Bhaskar have radically transformed me is not an overstatement. If 'radical' means 'complete,' then his guidance has in fact clarified and brightened every area of my life. If it means 'relating to the roots,' then I can say that he, as a mentor, knows to ask the questions that reach deep and propel you forward with willingness and ease. He is, after all, as skillful in his art as he knows his mentees can be. I am, and will continue to be, immensely grateful for the wisdom I've gained during my mentorship, and for Bhaskar's genuine presence along my path.

The result of his coaching is a conscious, replicable process of revealing a truth deeper than whatever challenges you now carry, which empowers you to choose whether you want to continue struggling or to naturally transform instead.
